At the Evolution of Psychotherapy Conference, attendees will be interested in the latest developments in educational materials and services; pharmaceutical information; employment; and residential programs. Registration is limited to practitioners in the health/mental health fields with a minimum of a Masters degree. (Graduate students in accredited programs also can attend.)

The Conference attracts attendees from 50+ countries and every State in the US. Nearly half of attendees are from the West Coast. Customary demographics are 40% Masters (MSW, MA, MS), 30% PhD/PsyD, 5% MD, and 25% graduate students. The percentage of foreign attendees could be as high as 20%.

About the Conference:

The Evolution of Psychotherapy Conference has become an event not to be missed. It provides a chance for leaders in the field of psychotherapy to present and discuss the evolution of their approach and the evolution of psychotherapy in general.
