Evocative vs Informative Communication

Communication is both Evocative and Informative

The Evolution of Psychotherapy
ANAHEIM, CALIFORNIA
FEBRUARY 2017

Limbic communication

- Animals Use Limbic Communication.
- Limbic Communication Orients Toward
- Conceptual Communication Orients Toward.
- Orienting Toward Elicits States.
- Emotions and States are Elicited Through Para-verbal Communication, Including Sounds and Gestures.
- Concepts are Communicated Para-verbally.
- Sounds and Gestures and Para-verbal communications are Metaphors

Evocative Communication Informative Communication

- Art is evocative communication.
- Evocative communication is required to alter states.
- Science is informative communication.
- We need science to understand facts.
- We need art to address and exercise phenomenology, lived experience (states, including emotions).
- Evocative communication has a grammar that is different from scientific, informative communication.
- If therapists understand the grammar of art, they can apply it to advancing psychotherapy.

When to Use Evocative Communication?

When information and advice fail.
When someone needs to realize a concept.
When the goal is to change a state.

Conceptual Communication

- Milton Erickson was a conceptual communicator.
- Hypnosis is conceptual communication.
- Hypnosis is about changing states
- Therapy can be directed to helping others assume adaptive states.
- To alter states it is necessary to use all output channels of communication: Our palette.

The Structure of Impact: Heuristics of Implicit Influence in the Movie Clip

- Oriented toward—awaken representations
- Create fascination
- Appeal to the eyes
- Attune
- Be multisensory, multidimensional, and multilevel.
- Move in strategic steps
- Use unreality—make it weird.
- Use movement—keep the eyes moving
- Destabilize—create arousal.
- Influence can be invisible. Use connotation.
- Precision
- Use signals to elicit emotion

Representation

Representation is the use of signs that stand in for and take the place of something else. It is through representation that people organize the world and reality through the act of naming its elements.

Here is another example:

ESTABLISHED 1977

Onomatopoeia Another Form of Representation

A word designed to be an imitation of a sound.

Examples:

1. "Bark! Bark!" went the dog as he chased the car that vroomed past.
2. The feeling gloomed down deeply.
3. The discovery flooshed suddenly into a tangible shape.
4. When you said that, my heart went bukata.

Metaphor

A Foundation of Conceptual Communication.
But, Metaphor is only One Example of Conceptual Communication.
Metaphor can be Used in Any Phase of Treatment
Metaphor is One Way to "Orient Toward."

Metaphor

- Metaphor: a figure of speech in which a word or phrase is applied to an object or action to which it is not literally applicable:
- Signification: The representation or conveying of meaning
- Figurative language: Whenever you describe something by comparing it with something else, you are using figurative language.

Metaphor

But the greatest thing by far is to have a command of metaphor. This alone cannot be imparted by another; it is the mark of genius, for to make good metaphors implies an eye for resemblances.

Metaphor

- Metaphor strengthens the message.
- We can say things in metaphor that cannot be stated in other ways.
- Metaphor is a way of being effective, not correct.
- Metaphor "gift-wraps" concepts
- Metaphor is novel and leads to neurogenesis.
- Metaphor makes things memorable.
- Metaphor is parallel communication that activates a search for personal meaning. "This is that."
- Metaphor prompts realizations.
- Metaphor prompts arousal
- Metaphor elicits autonomous response

ESTABLISHED 1977

Examples of Metaphor Problems/Solutions

- Waves of Pain; Waves of Excitement
- A Sky Grown Dark; An Aspiring Dawn
- A Closed Door; An Open Door
- Feel Blue; In the Pink
- A Rollercoaster of Emotions; Smooth Sailing
- Broken Heart; A Heart of Joy
- The Darkness of My Soul; The Light of My Life
- Boiling Mad; Smooth Sailing.
- Grind to a Halt; Pick up Speed

Tess of the d'Urbervilles Thomas Hardy

"And as each (of the country girls) and all of them was warmed by the sun, so each had a private sun for her soul to bask in—some dream, some reflection, some hobby, at least some remote and distant hope by which, starving to nothing, still lived on as hopes will."

Using Metaphor in Treatment

- Using metaphor in garnering rapport, assessment, goal setting, intervention, and termination.
- How to approach with metaphor. Goal setting with sculpting? Describing a system with metaphor

Metaphor and Simile

The metaphor states a fact or draws a verbal picture using comparison.
A simile would indicate you are like something—it is an analogy
A metaphor is stronger -- it says you are something.

Being Metaphoric

Being Metaphoric is a "state."
It needs to move from working memory to procedural memory as soon as possible.

Extended Metaphor
Shakespeare: As You Like It.

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages.
